UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

WINNEMUCCA INDIAN COLONY, et al.,
Plaintiffs,
v.
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, et al.,
Defendants.

Case No. 3:11-cv-00622-RCJ-VPC

STIPULATION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME
(FIRST REQUEST)

COME NOW Defendants, United States of America, et al., and Plaintiffs, Winnemucca Indian Colony, et al., and hereby stipulate and agree that Defendants may have a 30-day extension to file their responses to Plaintiffs' motion for hearing (ECF No. 279) and Plaintiffs' motion to enforce and acknowledge tribal court decisions. (ECF No. 280). Defendants' responses to those motions are currently due on January 12, 2018. An extension is needed, however, because defense counsel has a number of upcoming out-of-state business trips that will require her to be out of the office for extended periods. An extension would give Defendants up to and including February 12, 2018, in which to respond to Plaintiffs' motion for hearing (ECF No. 279) and Plaintiffs' motion to enforce and acknowledge tribal court decisions. (ECF No. 280).

1 Defense counsel contacted Plaintiffs' counsel via email, and Plaintiffs' counsel advised
2 that she does not object to Defendants' extension request. This is Defendants' first extension
3 request. Defendants seek this extension request in good faith and not for the purpose of delay.

4 Dated: January 8, 2018.
